

Disclaimer e-bike test ride

1. The participant carries out the e-bike test ride with the e-bikes provided by us at his own risk and peril. He/she assumes sole responsibility under civil and criminal law for all damage to property or personal injury caused by him/her or the e-bike used by him/her during the test ride and releases TQ-Systems GmbH from any responsibility and liability in this respect. In this respect, the event participant also assumes responsibility vis-à-vis TQ-Systems GmbH for damage caused to the e-bike during the test ride through his own fault, any third-party fault or accidental damage.
2. The event participant shall also indemnify TQ-Systems GmbH against claims by third parties for compensation for damage caused by the event participant during the test ride. The applicant also accepts unlimited liability for damage caused by improper handling or operation of the e-bike or damage caused by the event participant not following the instructions of TQ-Systems GmbH employees and declares to TQ-Systems GmbH that he/she is exempt from liability and responsibility.
3. The aforementioned exclusion of liability shall become effective for all parties involved upon the signature of the event participant; it shall apply to claims on any legal grounds, in particular both for claims for damages arising from contractual and non-contractual liability and also for claims arising from tort.
4. By joining this event, the event participant also declares that he/she waives all claims of any kind and on any legal grounds against TQ-Systems GmbH for his/her own damages incurred during the test ride, insofar as these damages are not demonstrably attributable to inadequate operational readiness of the e-bike provided for the test ride.
5. The event participant also assures that he/she is physically able to take part in an e-bike test ride and is not under the influence of psychoactive substances such as alcohol or medication that could affect his/her ability to ride.
